

Le Corbusier, Pierre Jeanneret & Charlotte Perriand - LC1 Chair

Original Design 1928 - Edition by Cassina

details

The Le Corbusier LC1 armchair by Cassina comes from a collection of avant-garde furniture developed by Le Corbusier, Pierre Jeanneret and Charlotte Perriand in the late 1920s.
Then as now the LC1 armchair is characterised by its strict, Minimalist form, a form reduced to elementary geometric shapes yet which results in maximum comfort.
Largely responsible for the very high comfort levels are sophisticated details such as the movable backrest or steel springs behind the seat and backrest. And the unique quality of the materials and the sophisticated production through Cassina ensure that the un...
