details

The EA 222 lounge chair by Charles and Ray Eames is, and as the entire Eames Soft Pad Chair collection, produced by Swiss manufacturer Vitra, and is arguably the most comfortable chair in the series: a fact largely attributable to its low seat position and one which can be individually adjusted by means of a tilt mechanism and thus respond to the body weight of the occupant. While thanks to the high backrest of the Vitra chair EA 222 one can lean back in comfort and security - the perfect location for long evening reading and relaxing.
