

Gerard van den Berg - Leather Sofa

ca. 1970, made in the Netherlands

details

Absolutely casual and impressive 2 seater sofa in finest, chocolate - coloured leather - we attribute it to the Dutch designer Gerard van den Berg, ca. 1970.

All seams are curved, which gives the sofa its character. The back cushions are held in place by concealed zips. The seating comfort is enormous, you can sit comfortably but also really "hang out"....

There is a normal patina (see photos), we consider the sofa to be ready to live in immediately.
