

Nanna Ditzel - Desk in certified Rio Rosewood

1958 Søren Willadsens, Dänemark

details

This elegant design by Nanna & Jørgen Ditzel by Søren Willadsen serves as a desk, a writing table, library table, or even a console table in a large space.

The spare, minimal form is delightful from every angle. Impeccably constructed by Søren Willadsen, the long top has four deep drawers (one of them is lockable by key) and is supported by two sets of legs joined by stretchers. This wonderful example is in very good original condition.

One of the most beautiful Nanna Ditzel tables we could ever present. The veneer and the details of the drawers are incredible, get an impression from the photo...
